Games Today
Bridgeport at Waterbury.
Hartford at New Haven.
Springfield at New Britain.
Northampton at Holyoke.

In Waterbury to-day.

Yesterday's postponed game marks the seventh for the Orators this season.

The signing of Bill Luyster and Deegan during the past week shows that Manager Jim is out for a first division team.

Manager O'Rourke seems to have picked up a first class twirler in Gibbs, the recruit from the snow shoe league in Maine. He has pitched several fine games since joining the Orators.—Waterbury Republican.

Vaughn, late of the Princeton Tigers got his first chance to appear with the Highlanders on Thursday. Keeler drew a base on balls in the eighth and Vaughn ran for him.

The game between the Detroit Americans and the Orators scheduled for tomorrow at Steeplechase has been called off as the Tigers have another engagement. They will however appear here later in the season.

Manager Zeller of the Springfield Ponies has wired Pitcher Fred Zavatzky of the Gloversville, N. Y., club to report at once. Zavatzky was tried out at the beginning of the season by the Ponies and did not suffice. Zavatzky has been playing in the Outlaw league, having pitched two games, allowing only four hits in nineteen innings. Both have been victories.

Springfield won a great up hill battle with the Senators yesterday in Springfield. Twice during the game Umpire Mason pulled his watch on the Hartfords, once for delaying the game and once because Captain Connery would not get off the coaching line when ordered to.

Al Odell, the former Orator, now covering third for "Pop" Foster's Reading Tri-State team was shoved into the box against Altoona the other day and won 2-1. Al allowed eight hits and walked two. When Al reported to Bridgeport a few years ago he started as a twirler, but Manager Jim developed him into the best third baseman Bridgeport ever had. Al might now be playing with the majors, only that he is on the black list.

Dan O'Neill has a bet on with Manager O'Rourke after the games of July 5th, the Orators will be in last place. A $5 dollar bet is the sacrifice and it is a sure wager that Dan will have to pay up.

The Northampton-Bridgeport game scheduled for the Lark city July 6th is to be transferred to Northampton. The Rose of New England is to have a celebration during that week and the people there are willing to guarantee much more money than could be taken in at Northampton on the day after a holiday.

Manager Hanna of New Britain has his lines out for Andy Herbst who was with New Haven last season but who was turned over to Lynn of the New England league. Herbst had a disagreement with Manager Bone of the Ravens which caused his transfer much to the chagrin of the New Haven fans, and Andy was a good player.

Three home games next week, Springfield on Wednesday; New Britain, Friday; and Holyoke, Saturday. We are in Springfield, Monday; Holyoke, Tuesday; and New Britain, Thursday.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Bengal Juniors challenge any fast 16 or 17 year old team in the city for a game tomorrow at the Flats at 2:30 o'clock.

The Lenox A. C. will play the Mohicans tomorrow at Brooklawn at 2:30 o'clock. The Lenox team would like to hear from local clubs for games during the rest of the season.

The Bengal Reserves will be able to accommodate the Bengal Juniors on Sunday, June 13, at the Flats. The lineup of the Reserves follows: Conklin, c; Casey, p; McGuire, ss; Baxter, 3b; Gallagher, 1b; Larkin, 2b; Malone, cf; Howell, 1b; J. Malone, rf. White and Cooke substitutes.

The Nukie A. C. will play their first home game tomorrow at the Park City Rink lot, when they will stack up against their rivals and former teammates, the Bengals. The Nukies have been playing out of town games to date, winning three and losing two; one of the losses being a twelve inning 3-2 exhibition. The Nukies have made a raid on the strong players of the Bengals, and have succeeded in capturing "Glick" Casey, the only living left handed shortstop in captivity. Casey will perform against his former mates tomorrow.

The game of all games will be played tomorrow morning at the Park City Rink lot when Gallagher's Wordin Avenue Sluggers meet Onkey's Iransitan Avenue Pets. Only bats will be used in the contest.
